VOL. VII, NO. 44

Building Movement.

READ THIS CAREFULLY.

Every Baptist in Mississippi ought to know what is stated here. Get the facts clear in your mind, brother, and the good Lord lead you to your duty.

The General Education Board has agreed to give Mississippi College twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for a science building provided we will raise seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) for other buildings and improvements. We must get our $75,000 subscribed and put into cash or legal notes by Dec. 31, 1906. We can make our notes payable in equal annual installments beginning not later than Nov. 1, 1906, and ending not later than Nov. 1, 1910. It is important that many of us shall make our first payment this fall or winter, so that we can begin erecting the first building next Spring.

I give below a copy of our subscription card. Clip out the card, fill as many of the blanks as you are willing with as large amount as you can possibly afford, sign it and mail it to W. T. Lowrey, Clinton, Miss. I will then send notes for you to sign. If you want more subscription cards write me and I will send them.

Yours for progress,
W. T. LOWREY.

Occurrence and Comment.

Dr. W. J. Dawson, the English evangelist now in this county, said in a sermon at Seattle that "the Missionary problem of to-day does not lie in foreign lands, but in the unsundered Christian of the church pew." Yes, indeed under imperfect instruction many people accept Christ as Saviour, but do not surrender to him as Lord, and do not commit themselves to him for service.

In the Autumnal meeting of the Baptist Union of Great Britain and Ireland at Northampton 1,400 delegates were enrolled.

The leading spirits of the meeting seemed to be Judge Willis and Dr. John Clifford. The Judge defended Baptists against the assumption of the Anglican church, especially in the Education Enactment, and the great preacher spoke on courage, defining it as "conviction turned into action," and this was the note of the true church.

A picket is "two or more men, belonging to a watch union, set to watch, intimidate, or among the men working in a shop not belonging to the union. Not long since an Illinois judge in sentencing a man for violating the laws against picketing, made luminous some words in our language when he said: "There is no such thing as peaceable, polite and gentlemanly picketing any more than there can be chaste, polite and gentlemanly vulgarity; or peaceful mobbing and lawful lynching."

Under Gov. Folk's instruction and insistence that the law be enforced the saloons of St. Louis, Kansas City, and St. Joseph, the three chief cities of Mo., have been closed from midnight Saturday to midnight Sunday for about six months. As one result, according to the estimate of the Beer Inspector, "About 150,000 fewer barrels of beer will be consumed this year than last." For 15 Sundays there has been a 40 per cent. decrease in arrests for drunkenness; 14 per cent. in arrests for disturbing the peace. What has been done in these cities can be done elsewhere.

The famous British admiral is reported as saying, "I do not believe alcohol in any form ever has or ever will do any one any good." He adds this testimony from experience: "I am now 60 years old, and since I have given up wine-spirits and beer, I find I can do as much work, or more, physically and mentally, than when I was 30. I am always well, always cheerful, always feel fit." This testimony is worthy of the fullest acceptance. It is corroborated by general experience and observation. Intoxicating liquor is evil, only evil, and evil continually. Let it alone.

Sir Thomas Barclay, England's authority on International Law, thinks the subjects which are most likely to come under discussion at the next peace conference at the Hague are "the establishment of neutral zones across the ocean along the chief highways of commerce, freedom from capture of private property at sea, the codification of neutral rights, a revision of beligerent rights on the high seas, especially as regards floating mines and concealed torpedoes." He thinks the limitation of armaments will come up, but that nothing will be done as that is a "matter rather for agreement between the individual powers. It seems that diplomats think great conflicts hereafter will be decided on the seas.

This is a serious accusation. It is righteous and true. About two weeks ago at a conference of Orthodox Jewish rabbis in Boston the following admission was made: "It is to be deplored that American freedom is today accomplishing what ages of persecution in Spain, Rome and other countries failed to do, and even what the Russian government today is trying to do by violence—the estrangement of the Jew from his religion." Why should Christians seek to estrange the Jew from his own religion? He cannot be won to Christ in this way. Judaism is better than no religion. It is not false; it is imperfect, incomplete. It needs only to accept Jesus as Lord and Christ in order to accomplish its fulfillment its completeness and perfection.

Press dispatch from Detroit Michigan: "Intensely dramatic was the moment when Surgeon-General Suzuki, of the Japanese navy, fresh from the battle of the Sea of Japan, declared with affecting earnestness and sincerity before the railroad Y. M. C. A. International Convention that he had been for twenty years a Christian. Very proudly he added that his wife and five children shared his belief. Tears dimmed many eyes when the distinguished Japanese surgeon told brokenly of the drowning of another child, his twelve-year-old daughter, just two days before he himself had been called into the thick of the recent fighting. Struggling to control his emotion, General Suzuki declared his faith in the Christian belief of the future life, saying of his little daughter whom he mourned: 'I believe she has gone to our own kingdom.'"

In his late visit to the Philippines Secretary Taft approved the arrangement by the government of the Island to complete the purchase of the lands of the Dominican friars.

The British Weekly says the Czar has authorized W. T. Stead, a well-known writer to organize public meetings in connection with the coming elections to the National Duma, or Parliament.
